

A Message From the Chief of Police:

We ended March with a reduction of Index Offenses by 27% compared to this same period last year. Violent Crimes and Property crimes are also down 4% and 29% respectively for the same period last year. Overall, we continue to see a decline in crimes in Terrell. Strong partnerships with the community and businesses continue to make a difference.

Together we are making a better and safer Terrell America

Equity, Fairness, Legitimacy and Justice for ALL citizens in the City of Terrell.
